

Medical Care Advisory Committee
Federal Account Transfers for Medicaid Eligibility
State of Florida

Report as of December 27, 2014

Open enrollment periods for tax subsidies for health insurance through the Federally Facilitated Marketplace (FFM)

- October 1, 2013 to March 31, 2014
- November 15, 2014 to February 15, 2015

Applications for Medicaid are accepted and processed year round

Applications for one Insurance Affordability Program (IAP) are applications for the other Insurance Affordability Programs

- Tax subsidies
- Medicaid
- Children's Health Insurance Program

Applications are routed electronically between IAPs and are called Account Transfers

Account transfers from the FFM in the first open enrollment period were delayed due to system issues and did not begin arriving in Florida until February 2014, causing an influx of over 113,000 new and backlogged referrals in March, about 36,000 in April and 14,000 in May

Outside of the open enrollment period (from June through October), Florida received about 5,000 Account Transfers needing a Medicaid eligibility decision per month

Account transfers from the FFM during the current open enrollment period are occurring daily. About 19,000 were received in November 2014 and 42,000 in December

Data on the disposition of these transfers is pending
